

ARLINGTON Announces Touchback to Giveback Campaign with Convoy of Hope

WAUKEGAN, Illinois, November 24, 2020 / -- ARLINGTON (Arlington Industries), a national distributor of imaging supplies and office equipment, today has announced it has partnered with Convoy of Hope to fight hunger, poverty, and suffering this holiday season. Bradley Pinion, punter of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, has teamed up with his uncle Larry Huneycutt (the president of ARLINGTON) to raise awareness to the cause with ARLINGTON matching up to $50,000 in donations.

The Touchback to Giveback campaign allows charitable donations given to Convoy of Hope through one-time or recurring pledges. One of these recurring pledges allows donors give a specific dollar amount for every touchback Bradley Pinion kicks during the remaining Tampa Bay season and postseason.

“We are thrilled to have my nephew Bradley supporting Convoy of Hope and providing our resellers, business partners and our employees an opportunity to support this cause,” states Larry Huneycutt. “Many of us are so fortunate enough to still have homes, food, and health this year. The ability for us to give back to those who are in need right now is a blessing for many of us.”
