

ARLINGTON Announces 2nd Annual Touchback to Giveback Campaign with Convoy of Hope

WAUKEGAN, Illinois, September 7, 2021 / -- ARLINGTON (Arlington Industries), a national distributor of imaging supplies and office equipment, today has announced they are partnering again with Convoy of Hope to fight hunger, poverty, and suffering during the upcoming 2021 NFL football season. Bradley Pinion, punter of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, has teamed up with his uncle Larry Huneycutt (the president of ARLINGTON) to raise awareness to the cause with the goal of raising $100,000 in donations.

The Touchback to Giveback campaign allows charitable donations given to Convoy of Hope through one-time or recurring pledges. Last year's campaign featured recurring pledges of a specific dollar amount for every touchback Bradley Pinion kicks during Tampa Bay's championship season and postseason. Pinion set an NFL record for touchbacks on the way to helping the Buccaneers win Super Bowl LV. In the process, raising $75,000 from ARLINGTON's valued employees and resellers that were used to directly assist those in need in the United States.

"We are thrilled to have Convoy of Hope and Bradley Pinion as our partners in the fight against hunger and suffering that so many are facing in our nation," states Larry Huneycutt. "The response to last year's program was tremendous and we are so proud of what our employees and resellers gave. This year, we look forward to supporting the cause for another football season and hopefully another run at the Super Bowl."

ARLINGTON is also donating a 2009 Dodge Challenger (Drag Pak edition) to be auctioned at the Greensboro Auto Auction November 5th with all proceeds from the sale going to Convoy of Hope.
